Discover Ninety Six, South Carolina

From the Siege at Star Fort to the production of military fabric at the Ninety Six Cotton Mill, the Town of Ninety Six has a long and interesting history and through it all has preserved their small town quality of life. Whether it's spending time at the Visitors Center, taking a stroll down the walking trails or enjoying the Town Park, Ninety Six has many things to offer.

 The Ninety Six Visitors Center

Located Main Street, 97 Highway 34

The Historic 96 Development Association and the Ninety Six Chamber of Commerce extends an invitation to come and enjoy Ninety Six and its surrounding area.

 Walking Trails in Ninety Six

Enjoy the three (3) walking trails in Ninety Six. A walking trail guide is available in The Visitors Center.

 The Ninety Six Town Park

Located corner of Saluda and Cross Streets.

The Park provides a shaded relaxing atmosphere for children to play, a walking trail and a picnic pavilion.

 The Ninety Six Branch Library

Located 118 South Cambridge Street.

A branch of the Greenwood County Library.

 The Train Depot

Located on Main Street, Hwy. 34

The well preserved Train Depot serves as a community facility and the Senior Citizens Center.

 The Ninety Six Mill Village

A community of well preserved red tiled roofed homes built by

James C. Self founder of the Ninety Six Cotton Mill in the 1940s.

 The Kinard House Bed & Breakfast

Located on Main Street

A beautifully restored home listed on the National Historic Register. Lodging accommodations are available by reservation.

 Shopping and Dining

Visit our downtown shops and dine at our restaurants.

 The Ninety Six National Historic Site

Located 2 miles South of Ninety Six on Hwy. 248

A Revolutionary War Battle Site with scheduled living history re- enactments, a walking trail, a museum and Visitors Center.

 Lake Greenwood State Park

A 914 acre park located on beautiful Lake Greenwood with shoreline for camping, fishing, picnicking, boating, biking and hiking.

* Additional lodging Accommodations are available in nearby Greenwood , SC just ten minutes from Ninety Six.

* SC National Heritage Corridor

Ninety Six is part of the SC National Heritage Corridor. We are located in the Freshwater Coast Region. To plan your travels on these historic back roads and tour our state's rural communities please visit-www.sc-heritagecorridor.org/

Ninety Six Churches Founded

Bethlehem Baptist Before 1911
Cambridge United Methodist 1920
Church of God 1937
Church of God of Prophecy 1963
First Baptist 1875
Mays United Methodist 1889
Mt. Pleasant 1896
Ninety Six Presbyterian 1774
Ninety Six Pentecostal Holiness 1917
St. Paul United Methodist 1875
Temple Baptist 1905

Ninety Six Schools, District 52, are accredited by the Southern Association of Colleges and Schools. All standards are met as set forth by the S. C. Department of Education.

Community Calendar

1st Monday - Ninety Six Chamber of Commerce
Meets in the Ninety Six Visitors Center

2nd Monday - Ninety Six Lions Club
Meets in the Ninety Six Depot

3rd Monday - Ninety Six Town Council Meeting
Meets in the Ninety Six Visitors Center

The Ninety Six Chamber of Commerce and Town of Ninety Six welcomes visitors to our Town.

For additional information, contact:

The Ninety Six Chamber of Commerce
Telephone - 543-2047
www.96chamberofcommerce.com

Margie Blalock, Director of Tourism & Events
Telephone
www.visit96.com

Address 1
Address 2
Address 3

Title Here

Subtitle Here

Organization Name Here

Heading

Text here.

Heading

Text here.

Heading

Text here.